Her two songs that became big hits in Sweden were "Säg mig säg mig" and "Nu gör vi det." Career Maja Byström has had an active career in Swedish music, since she wrote the song "Om du hade varit och väntat" for Christer Sjögren's album in 1980. She performed the song, as a duet with Håkan Hellstrand. It became a big-hit and was also performed during the Eurovision Song Contest 1981 in The Hague, and during Melodifestivalen 1983, where she was a finalist. The next big hit for Maja was "Nu gör vi det" ("Now we are doing it"), originally a song by Jodie Batten, which had been very successful in Europe, although it did not enter the Swedish charts at all. Her fourth single was "Du är världens bästa människa", which had been a big hit in the US. By the end of the 1980s Maja and her partner, singer Billy Crawford, decided to devote themselves to songwriting. They were signed to his record label, together with Christer Sjögren. They wrote a couple of records by Christer Sjögren, but then they decided to work on their own. In the early 1990s they wrote and published the lyrics of "Sommar på Island", which became a number one hit for Christer Sjögren, and a big-hit for Maja and Billy, on the album "Min bästa vän."
